THE GREAT
KIDNEY REGULATOR
AND DIURETIC.

KIDNEGEN is highly recommended and unsurpassed for WEAK or FOUL KIDNEYS, DROPSY, BRIGHT'S DISEASE, LOSS of ENERGY, NERVOUS DEBILITY, or any OBSTRUCTIONS arising from GRAVEL or BLADDER DISEASES. Also for YELLOW FEVER, BLOOD and KIDNEY POISONING, in infected malarial sections.

By the distillation of a FOREST LEAF with JUNIPER BERRIES and BARLEY MALT we have discovered KIDNEGEN, which acts specifically on the Kidneys and Urinary Organs, removing deposits in the Bladder and any straining, smarting, heat or irritation in the water passages, giving them strength, vigor and causing a healthy color and easy flow of urine. It can be taken at all times, in all climates, without injury to the system. Unlike any other preparation for Kidney difficulties, it has a very pleasant and agreeable taste and flavor. It contains positive diuretic properties and will not nauseate. Ladies especially will like it, and Gentlemen will find KIDNEGEN the best Kidney Tonic ever used!

NOTICE.—Each bottle bears the signature of LAWRENCE & MARTIN, also a Proprietary Government Stamp, which permits KIDNEGEN to be sold (without license) by druggists, grocers and other persons everywhere. Put up in Quart-size Bottles for General and Family Use.
LAWRENCE & MARTIN, Prop'rs, Chicago, Ill.
Sold by Druggists, Grocers and Dealers everywhere.

The fusion members of the committee will make a minority report for Penobscot and Knox. It is stated that Governor Plaisted says he will veto the apportionment if the Penobscot report of the majority is adopted. Many contend that an apportionment does not require executive approval, as the Constitution specifically provides that the Legislature shall make the apportionment.

THE NEW CITY GOVERNMENT.

Our reports elsewhere give the organization of the new City Government and the text of Mayor Strickland's Address. It is a concise, business-like, document and will be read by all. Our new Mayor evidently believes in letting the administration speak for itself, rather than in laying out an elaborate programme in advance. His views on important points are decidedly expressed and he presents a gratifying exhibit of our municipal affairs.

The two branches of the City Council are composed of representative men of ability. Councilman Fairbanks will prove a capable presiding officer in the lower board, and there is every reason to expect a wise, efficient and satisfactory management of our local interests. We welcome our new City Fathers and wish them abundant success.

A BOUNCING BASS.

The following remarkable "yarn" appeared in the editorial columns of the Boston Post of last Saturday, and as one of the present staff of that paper was for some time associated with Mr. Bass on the Commercial, the story is doubtless given just as Mr. Bass poured it into the suffering ear of his editor. We give it as a sample of bouncing romance and romancing bounce:

[From the Boston Post, March 19.]

A telegram from Bangor yesterday announced that among the committee on reception at ex-Senator Hamlin's levee was every living ex-Mayor of the city. One of these ex-Mayors is the Hon. Joseph P. Bass, an irrepressible Democrat, who was Mayor of Bangor a few years ago and who is now the chief proprietor of the Daily Commercial of that city. And this recalls to mind one of the performances of Mr. Bass which is worth relating. Bass was chosen Mayor much to the disgust of the ring or stalwart politicians, who had from time immemorial controlled the destinies of Bangor, and with them he was unpopular throughout his official term. Unfortunately for him he did not have a majority of those of his political faith in the City Council, and there was constantly manifested a disposition to embarrass the Mayor. Not long after Bass had been elected to the Mayoralty it was announced that President Grant was to make a visit to Bangor and would reach the city on a certain day by steamer. The prominent members of the Republican "ring" at once set about making arrangements to receive and entertain the President, wholly ignoring the Mayor, whose position of course entitled him to be chairman of the committee of arrangements. But the Mayor was not to be euchered in that way. He waited quietly until the "ring" had completed its elaborate arrangements, which included a reception and banquet at the Bangor House, and a committee of escort which was to meet the President at the boat, upon his arrival at the dock. Then the Mayor at the proper time had his barouche and four white horses in readiness and he himself was driven to the boat. Arrived there he ordered the police to clear the way for his easy passage to the boat, and expressly ordered them to allow no man but himself to cross the plank when the boat arrived. The instructions were carried out to the letter and Mayor Bass boarded the steamer, received the President, and to the astonishment and indignation of the Republican politicians, conducted him to his carriage, which was immediately driven to the Mayor's residence. Lunch was served and after exchanging salutations with a number of personal and political friends of the Mayor, the President was taken on an extended drive about the city. It is related that being informed of the turn matters had taken, the President laughed heartily and informed the Mayor that he had enjoyed his visit hugely and was not sorry that he had escaped the crowd of politicians who had laid their net for him.

It would be bad enough for a man to boast of such a boorish performance if it had really occurred, and it is charitable to believe there are but few persons who would invent such a discreditable story to tell about themselves.

Aside from the inevitable fact that the "irrepressible" Mr. Bass did thrust himself forward unduly on that occasion, there is not a word of truth in the above story. President Grant came to Bangor then with a private party of the guests of Senator Blaine, and in their brief stay in this city until the departure of the Western train they were the private guests of Senator Hamlin. There was no "committee of arrangements," no thought of any "reception and banquet at the Bangor House," and the Mayor was not "entitled" to interfere in any way. Instead of being "immediately driven to to the Mayor's residence," etc., etc., the party were driven to the Penobscot Exchange, where Senator Hamlin had engaged rooms and provided a collation. After the lunch at the Exchange teams were provided for a drive about the city, and the President and Mr. Blaine accepted the Mayor's invitation to seats in his carriage. That ride is the sole basis of the romancing that has found its outlet in the columns of the Post.

A STRIKING CONTRAST.

THE TRANSFER OF CONTROL IN THE SENATE.

[Cor. N. Y. Tribune.]

WASHINGTON, March 18. Two years ago to-day the Senate met in compliance with the proclamation of President Hayes, convening the XLVIth Congress in extra session; and the Democratic party, for the first time in eighteen years, by its newly elected majority in the body, took formal charge of affairs. To-day witnessed the last act in the peaceful counter-revolution by which the Democratic party lost its hold, and, with hardly a gasp, unwillingly turned over the control to the Republicans again. The contrast presented to the minds of those who were so fortunate as to witness both events, was striking and suggestive.

The jaunty, confident air worn by Democratic Senators on the former occasion was recalled. A new lease of political life had been taken and the world looked bright indeed. Great opportunities were opening up, in which even the least influential men of the party might earn coveted distinction. They would show the country and the world how much better they could govern than those who had so long wielded power. They would do nothing which their opponents had approved. New methods and new men should henceforth find prominence in public affairs. They wanted no advice and would submit to no interference. Self-sufficiency reigned in the caucus councils of the party as in the breasts of its individual members. To-day, with a show of meek protest, but without discussion, without even a parliamentary struggle, they surrendered and went to the rear, confessing by their demeanor, as previously by the mouths of Eaton and others, that they were incompetent to govern even themselves, much less the country.

It was from the lips of Mr. Saulsbury that the Republicans and the country were first informed that the Democrats upon their accession to power two years ago, intended to carry matters with a high hand. The following extract from his speech on that occasion, delivered with a rollicking air, his tall, lank form stooping forward and his little head bobbing to and fro, reads pleasantly in the light of current proceedings:

I should be very glad to see our brethren on the other side take their present situation a little more cheerfully. I could congratulate them, from the experience of a number of years in the minority, on the fact that it is a much pleasanter position than I apprehend they found as members of the majority. They can aid in giving proper information at the proper time and in the proper way; but on this side of the House, when we strike a line on our own action, it is a duty to ourselves not to permit the other side of the House to shape our course of policy in reference to any particular measure. It had better be understood at once that the Democratic party in possession have responsibilities now upon them, and intend to pursue their own line of policy uncontrolled and uninfluenced by what may be the wishes of the other side in reference to questions, especially of a political character. I hope our friends on the other side will reconcile themselves to their present position and like Christian statesmen bear it manfully. [Laughter.]

Nobody laughed to-day, when the same Senator, after the Democratic Committee list had been laid upon the table and the Republican list had been adopted, arose and solemnly called the attention of "the Senate and the country" to the fact that the Democrats had not filibustered, but had submitted with decorum to the inevitable.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

[E. V. Smalley, in N. Y. Tribune.]

SECRETARY BLAINE'S MANY VISITORS.

The pressure of visitors at the State Department is almost as great as at the White House. Mr. Blaine has now a chance to realize that the possession of a great number of personal friends has its disadvantageous side. Every one of his ten thousand enthusiastic admirers seems to think he ought to show his attachment by coming to Washington and asking for an office; or, if he wants no office, insisting at least on having a good square talk with the new Premier. If the applications for place which are pressed upon the Secretary were limited to his own Department he would be fortunate, but people who want postmasterships, collectorship, marshalships, and other offices with which he has nothing to do, appeal to him on the ground of personal friendship, as though he were, like the President, a general dispenser of all sorts of patronage. I am bound to say that he bears up wonderfully well under these continuous raids upon his good nature. He can get rid of an importunate and unreasonable office-seeker without offending him or cooling the ardor of his personal liking better than any other man in the Cabinet. He moves about his great reception-room with as much ease and tact as though he had been years in the place, weighing the importance of his visitors at a glance, taking five minutes with one and half a minute with another, but having for each a cordial handshake and a pleasant word. His oldest son, Walker Blaine, has come from Minnesota to be his chief adjutant—a quiet, modest, well-poised and sagacious young gentleman, who occupies a desk in the reception room, and between his correspondence and the calls upon him to act as intercessor in securing audience with his father, is up to his ears in work. His brother Emmons, who has shown a good deal of taste and aptitude for public life in the political campaigns in Maine, has gone into a railroad office in Chicago, wisely concluding to let politics alone until he has made a footing for himself in active business life.

PROSPECTIVE STATE POLICY.

People who care little for the personalities of politics, and who look over and beyond the squabble for place to discern the tendencies of the new Government, expect something striking, pointed and progressive to come from Mr. Blaine's direction of the State Department. He is not a man, they say, to sit four years in a cushioned chair and do nothing but commission a few Ministers and consuls and exchange compliments with the members of the foreign legislations. He comes from a State that is wedged in between two British provinces and will be sure to have definite and thoroughly American ideas on the question arising from the proximity of the anomalous semi-independent Canadian Dominion. He has carefully studied the Isthmus question; he knows the great importance to our commercial and manufacturing interests of the movement of binding Mexico to us with iron bands, and making with our capital and industry a peaceful and friendly conquest of her rich mines and fruitful fields. He does not, like Jefferson, wish the Atlantic Ocean was a sea of fire, but sees that the United States, as the strongest and best of the great family of nations, has interests and duties all around the world. He is not going to imitate the filibustering policy of Marcy. There is no fear of that; but I venture to predict that the credit, commerce, prestige and influence of the Great Republic will steadily grow under his management of its foreign relations.

WHEN "BULL-DOZER" MEETS "BRIGADIER."

[From the Boston Herald.]

Senator Ben Hill is in a position to sympathize with the old farmer in South Carolina who was killed and buried by one stroke of lightning. Mahone's thunderbolt did the business for the Bourbon leader. If he is ever resurrected sufficiently to encounter another such storm, he will probably depute somebody else to face it. A hot-headed little fellow, who has smelled gunpowder, and is so slim that a bullet would stand small chance even of splitting itself on him, pointing his steady trigger-finger at a blustering whipper-in, and saying, "This must stop—understand that!" is a different sort of an opponent from what the Georgian has been accustomed to meet. Aside from its political significance, the encounter of the two Southern Senators has an interesting side. It shows that the day of domineering dictation has passed. The ostracism of Longstreet, Mosby and other ex-confederates who accepted the situation, was a discouragement to political independence at the South. But you can't ostracize a man who is worth $2,000,000, with a party behind him, and such courage to maintain his position as Gen. Mahone has displayed. Bad as some of his methods and aims are, his revolt is likely to do more to break the power of the old regime at the South than anything that has recently happened.

NEW MAGAZINES.

The ATLANTIC MONTHLY contains four chapters of Mr. James' serial, the Portrait of a Lady, and two chapters of Miss Phelps' finely characteristic story, Friends, a Duet. A paper on Old Aryan Words, by Mr. John Fiske, shows the significance of such words and the hints which they convey of the life and customs of the Aryans. An interesting chapter upon Voltaire's School Days affords a foretaste of the Life of Voltaire, which Mr. James Parton has nearly ready for publication. Mr. Rossetti reaches the most interesting part of his subject, The Wives of Poets, in a chat upon the wives of Burns, Byron, Shelley, Coleridge, Poe and others of this-century poets. Mr. Julius H. Ward discusses the New Sunday, laying stress upon the use of the day for rest and right recreation, and putting in a plea for tolerance and flexibility, but not forgetting the higher and sacred uses of the day. Major Poore continues his extremely interesting Reminiscences of Washington with a chapter on the Fillmore Administration, in which the growth of Know Nothingness and the entrance of Charles Sumner upon Congressional life are two of the episodes. Mr. White discourses of certain phases of English intolerance and ignorance in an article upon the British Philistine. There are reviews of Johnson's Garrison and other Biographies, of the Early History of Fox, of H. H.'s Century of Dishonor, and of Two German Novels; poems are contributed by Rose Terry Cooke, Cameron Mann, Mrs. Moulton, Frances M. Brown and Ella Wheeler; the Contributors' Club is more than commonly full; and there are terse and well-arranged jottings upon some of the minor Books of the Month. Houghton, Mifflin & Co., publishers, Boston.

LIPPINCOTT'S MAGAZINE for April presents a very varied list of contents, yet all of a light and vivacious character. A Peep at the North of Ireland, by W. George Beers, and Characteristic Dances of the World, by Amelia E. Barr, entertainingly written and well illustrated, are otherwise sufficiently described by their titles. The first of a short illustrated series of papers on Zoological Curiosities, by Dr. Felix L. Oswald, treats of Mountain Sheep. On a California Ranch, by Louise Coffin Jones, is a capital descriptive sketch; J. Brander Matthews writes critically and with ample knowledge, of the Present Tendencies of the French Drama; Lizzie W. Champney has an anecdotical paper, from unpublished sources, on the American loyalists who, after the Revolution, found new homes in the province of New Brunswick; and Frank D. Y. Carpenter gives a very amusing sketch of Wash Lo, the typical Chinaman of the present day, in distinction from Ah Sin, who is now all but extinct. A new serial story, with the quaint title of Braque-o-Doom, opens well, the characters being novel and yet life-like, the movement rapid, and the style crisp, and spirited. Of the short stories, John Henry, by Sydney Chase, is laughable, while in Sister Weeden's Prayer, by Sherwood Bonner, there is a mixture of humor and pathos. The poems are by Maurice Thompson, Howard Glyndon, and Charlotte Bates, and among the good things in the Monthly Gossip is a notice of Carlyle which describes his person, manners, and conversation in the surroundings of his own home.

DEATH OF JAMES W. ROGERS, OF STETSON. We regret to learn of the death, at his residence in Stetson, Sunday evening, of James W. Rogers, Esq., one of the Republican candidates for State Senator last year and a member of the House of Representatives in 1880. Mr. Rogers was about 46 years of age and leaves a widow but no children. He was a leading man in his community, a successful farmer and one of the staunchest of stalwart Republicans. He had for several years been battling with the advances of pulmonary consumption which finally caused his death. The deceased was a man of excellent standing and solid character and we hope to give a more extended notice of his life hereafter. The afflicted relatives have our sincerest sympathy with that of other friends in all parts of the State.

After our repeated queries it is rather late for the Commercial to propose to tell us what it thinks about Ladd's speech after we state our opinion of Mayor Brown's administration and his valedictory address. We have already expressed our views of the former and shall be pleased to give our opinion of the latter just as soon as our "previous question" about Ladd is answered. In the mean time we may remark that if there was anything in Mayor Brown's address that particularly pleases the Commercial and the class that it represents we are sorry for it.

It is hardly necessary to state that the Commercial's report that the editor of this paper opposed the idea of giving the reception to Senator Hamlin "a non-political character," is absolutely and unqualifiedly false. Respectable Democrats are aware of the fact, and the opinions of the other class, represented by the Commercial, are of no consequence.

"Perley" telegraphs the Boston Journal that "the President will ask the advice of his Cabinet on calling an extra session late in May on Tuesday next, and he will undoubtedly be advised to issue his proclamation calling one at once."

The pavement made by this Company has met with the highest favor, both in this country and in Europe, and it is considered to approach perfection more nearly than any other.

The Works of the Company are at Providence, R. I., and at Hastings, N. Y., and the needs of its business will soon require additional ones at Chicago and other large cities.

TUESDAY, MARCH 22, 1881.

BY TELEGRAPH.

MAINE NEWS.

LEWISTON AND AUBURN.

Organization of the New City Governments.

LEWISTON, Me., March 21. The new city governments of Lewiston and Auburn organized to day. Mayors Ludden of Lewiston, and Woodman of Auburn, were inaugurated. In Mayor Ludden's address, the total indebtedness of the city of Lewiston, less resources, was stated at $8,775,-504. The debt has been reduced $1,844,-446 the past year. He devoted a large part of his message to a discussion of Lewiston's water supply. He concluded that with its eighty-two square miles of lake system secured by dams and gates and the one hundred and fifty miles of river between here and Lake Umbagog, fed by ponds and rivers and innumerable streams, Lewiston has the right to expect and to give assurance that if the six large manufacturing corporations should be supplemented by six or nine more, requiring two or two and a half times the water now used through the year, the power would be equal to the demand without a margin for doubt.

Mayor Woodman's address stated the Auburn bonded city debt was $25,050,-000 having been reduced the last year $6,000, liabilities above cash resources, $20,963,712, which is $659,850 less than a year ago.

FROM BERWICK.

Annual Election—All Republicans.

SOUTH BERWICK, March 21. At the annual town election here to day the following town officers were elected: Moderator, John M. Burleigh; Town Clerk and Treasurer, W. H. Downs; Selectmen, John Gray, Geo. H. Muzzey and True E. Goodwin, Supervisor of Schools, Rev. W. A. Newcomb; Chief Engineer, John W. Richmond. All Republicans, and elected by about 50 majority. The act passed by the Legislature to annex that part of Berwick south of the Boston & Maine Railroad to the town of South Berwick was accepted by a unanimous vote.

Strike at Fall River.

FALL RIVER, March 21. The American Printing Co. rang their bell and gave their help an opportunity to return to work at the old prices this morning, but the help refused. The spinners at the Chase mill struck this morning in consequence of the dismissal of Joseph Marland, Treasurer of the Spinners' Union.

Second Despatch.

A strike has sprung upon the city to-day which was wholly untalked of and is a surprise to both operatives and manufacturers. How far it will extend, or what the out-come may be, is wholly a matter of conjecture. A strike occurred this morning at Chase mill, one of the large corporations, which produces between 5000 and 6000 pieces of print cloths per week. It was occasioned immediately by the discharge of John Marland, Treasurer of the Spinners' Union, though it does not appear that the discharge was owing to the official capacity of Mr. Marland, as other spinners have been discharged summarily during the past few weeks.

A Maine Vessel Abandoned at Sea.

LEWIS, Del., March 21. The bark Arthur C. White, from Cardenas, arrived, having on board Capt. Bowman and crew of the schooner L. W. Wheeler, abandoned at sea March 15th. She sailed from Navassa Island, Jan. 16th, with guano and phosphate. Meeting heavy gales she anchored at Fortune Island, remaining until the 27th, when she sailed again and encountered such heavy weather that the schooner was badly strained and leaked freely. The pumps were kept going constantly until March 15th, when the bark White relieved them. When the crew abandoned her she had four feet of water in the hold. The schooner was owned in Bristol, Maine, and was 323 tons burden. No insurance.

A DEFAULTING TREASURER.

A New Hampshire Savings Bank Embezzled Out of More than $100,000.

KEENE, N. H., March 31. The figures now demonstrate that there is a very heavy defalcation in the Ashuelot Savings Bank at Winchester. The indications are that the defalcation will be more than $100,000. The Commissioners have shown that the bank statement five years ago was false, which leaves no doubt but that the defalcation extends back of that time. The Treasurer has for years deceived both Trustees and Commissioners and kept the bank's reputation to the highest point until the last exposure.

WHAT IS BEHIND IT? No amount of money can stand in the stead of a good name. It is a blunder everywhere and every time to suppose the loss of character can be paid for. Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., proprietor of the great medicine called "Favorite Remedy," would have but little confidence to recommend the public to buy and use it if his own good name were not behind it. But the fact that he has staked his reputation upon it ought to be, and is, better than a thousand cheap certificates—in the opinion of the people. The Doctor is a regular physician-surgeon, and despises a humbug as heartily as any man. If you are sick with any complaint of the Blood, Kidneys or Liver, invest One Dollar in the "Favorite Remedy," and it will speak for itself. d&w 2w mar18

AN HONEST PREPARATION. The world is so crammed with swindles that a really honest man, or honest thing is almost as scarce as robins in January. Yet Mr. J. H. Northrop, of Lansingburg, N. Y., formerly captain of the Troy police, says Dr. David Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy" is "an honest preparation." And the captain ought to know for the medicine cured him of Liver Complaint. It is mean enough to cheat a well man, but to cheat the sick and the suffering deserves a short shift and a long rope. Whatever sins Dr. Kennedy may be guilty of, misrepresentation of his medicine is not among them. Try it for One Dollar, or write to the Doctor at Rondout, N. Y. d&w2w mar18

FEES OF DOCTORS. The fee of doctors is an item that very many persons are interested in just at present. We believe the schedule for visits is $3.00, which would tax a man confined to his bed for a year, and in need of a daily visit, over $1,000 a year for medical attendance alone! And one single bottle of Hop Bitters taken in time would save the $1,000 and all the year's sickness.—Post.

This name is one that our citizens will appreciate, and good judges pronounce the boat worthy of it and say that she will be a fit companion for her sister the "City of Bangor."

A SEVERE WINTER. The following extract is taken from a letter written by Major Geo. Brown, of Fort Lyon, Colorado, to his father, Joseph Brown, Esq., of this city: "We have got through a hard winter for this country. It has been unusually cold and considerable snow has fallen. The stockmen have met with heavier losses than ever before in one season. Very many cattle have died about here. The troops have hauled off four thousand carcasses and thrown them into the river below the reservation. The weather the past week has been delightful. We shall have more or less wind storms through the spring, but no cold, muddy, nasty weather such as you have in Maine."

MAINE CENTRAL RAILROAD. We glean the following interesting facts from the report of Superintendent Tucker, to be presented at the annual meeting of the Maine Central Railroad Company Wednesday: Miles run by passenger trains, 572,177; freight trains, 404,776; total mileage of all trains, 1,287,131. Total number of passengers carried, 714,974; receipts for same, $730,567.74; total number of passengers from this station, 26,432; receipts for same, $64,192 06. Total number of tons of freight carried, 451,533.65-100; receipts for same, $890,762.55; total number of tons received at this station, 17,484; receipts for same, 44,958.84; total number of tons forwarded from this station, 25,299; receipts for same, $64,545 16. During the year 2,000 tons of steel rails have been laid, making 74½ miles in track at this date. Thirteen new bridges have been built during the year, three of which were iron. There are now 79 bridges on the road, all but seven of which have been rebuilt since 1870. New turn tables have been put in at Bangor, Belfast and Maranacook. The rolling stock consists of 57 locomotives, 21 snow plows, 58 passenger cars, 22 baggage and mail cars, 643 box cars, 498 platform cars, 34 conductors' saloon and tool cars, 3 postal cars. From the report of the Treasurer we learn that the cash on hand at the end of the year was $7,981 72.

FOR THE LADIES. Doe color, the new tint for street wear, blends well either with scarlet or with pale blue. It is a light tint of the color called coffee with milk. Many of the new gauzes have the appearance of plush produced by many looped rows of silk threads woven on the surface. The summer bonnets will be trimmed with lace, flowers or satin in the piece, with some clusters of flowers mingled with feathers. The modist grenadines will be entirely overshadowed by the dresses of black Spanish lace which are said to be in preparation for the summer. Grey is not only combined with garnet this season but with gold and sage green and mignonette, and the effect although certainly novel is hardly pretty. Grenadines are made up with striped basques and plain skirts precisely like thicker stuffs. The striped grenadines are alternately satin and lace patterns. Blouse waists are to be much worn by young girls this spring. They are made with the three plaits in the back and three in the front, and they extend about six inches below the waist. It makes no difference about the rest of a suit but the neck must be trimmed. A Byron collar, two bows of surah and a shirred yoke are not considered too much to be worn at once. The newest black dresses have their aprons and draperies laid in soft folds, sometimes fastened high on one side, sometimes pointed in front, but always accurately fitted to the figure of the wearer.

ATHLETIC SPORTS. The Yale crew has taken to hard work in the boat in New Haven harbor. Ward of the Providence club is said to have determined not to play ball after this season, but next year will go abroad for the purpose of completing his studies. It is the intention of Hanlan to offer a series of purses to be rowed for on Toronto bay about the last week in July. He will not be a participant but will personally manage all the details of the regatta. Courtney says: "After row my other matches, I will pull Hanlan on Toronto bay. I'll treat him as he did me—he made me wait. I cannot pull him for a large sum, as I shall have to put up my own money." The second of the series of gymnasium meetings at Harvard College was held Saturday afternoon in the Hemenway gymnasium. The winners in the various events were: Fencing bout, D. S. Leavitt, S. S., 9 points; light weight sparring, S. S. Hellbron, '83; two-hand vault, G. B. Morison, '83, who cleared 6ft, 8in.; feather-weight sparring, S. H. Hellbron, '83; in the tug of war between '81 and '82, the former won. Hanlan says he is not so anxious for a race that he would give any one an advantage that might place his own chances in peril; but, if he could not get a match in any other way, he would give a concession of 15 seconds to Courtney or Smith, or 10 seconds to Ross, the conditions being that the start shall be level and the time given as a concession be deducted from his performance at the finish of the race.

INAUGURATION OF THE NEW CITY GOVERNMENT.

ADDRESS BY MAYOR STRICKLAND.

Regular Business of the Two Boards.

The members of the new City Government assembled in their rooms yesterday morning at ten o'clock and then adjourned to City Hall where the inauguration services occurred. The ex-Mayors occupied seats upon the stage.

The meeting was opened by Mayor Brown who called upon Victor Brett, Esq., City Clerk, to read the record of the recent election, after which Rev. Mr. Stewart offered prayer.

MAYOR STRICKLAND'S ADDRESS.

At the close of the above ceremony His Honor Mayor Strickland delivered the following address, which was listened to with marked attention by the large gathering present:

Gentlemen of the City Council:

The voters of our city call us together this morning for the purpose of clothing us with authority to enter upon our official duties as their municipal officers.

As your Mayor, it is required of me to be vigilant and active in causing the laws and regulations of the city to be executed and enforced, to exercise a general supervision over the conduct of all subordinate officers, and cause any violation of law, or neglect of duty to be punished, and to be a co-worker with you, in your several duties as members of the city council.

The responsibilities incumbent upon us therefore, are difficult and laborious, and to perform them well and wisely needs our careful and candid consideration.

During the past year, our city, through the favor of a Divine Providence, has been unusually free from epidemics, and the general health of the people, good.

I suggest three methods for the promotion of temperance: First—Principles of temperance should be taught at home and in our schools. Second—The influence of moral suasion. Third—The removal of the temptation. Home and school impressions upon the minds of youth are usually lasting, and often adhered to through life. Moral suasion is doing its work faithfully, and I trust will be continued until its mission is fulfilled. Our law makers for the present have done their part in helping to remove the temptation.

Our taxes are a burden to our people. It becomes us to make every reasonable effort to lighten this burden as much as a wise administration will allow.

The improvements we demand in our schools, streets, sewers, water, fire and police are unlimited, and that none of these are perfectly completed is evidenced each year in petitions for extending and enlarging them.

I earnestly recommend to your consideration some plan of permanent improvement on our streets, such as your good judgment may dictate, after a thorough investigation.

Full reports of our several departments will be placed before you. I invite your attention to portions of each, and quote largely from the report of our treasurer, which must be gratifying to every voter who expects to keep our financial department sound, and our standard of credit maintained.

From the report of the City Treasurer, the following abstract has been made:

Abstract of above.

Amt. of appropriations and credits	$220,145 80
Amt. expended	208,385 33
Amt. unexpended balance	$11,760 47

It will be noticed that the amount expended in the Pauper Department the past year is $16,664.64, which is $4,760 less than the average expenditure for the last nine years.

Expenditures in Pauper Department:

1872	$21,795 05
1873	18,566 48
1874	23,831 32
1875	20,970 80
1876	25,012 12
1877	28,185 55
1878	21,094 03
1879	19,690 74
1880	16,664 64
	$192,810 73
Average for 9 years	$21,423 00

LIABILITIES OF THE CITY, MARCH 9, 1881.

Municipal bonds due in	1881	$15,000 00
	1882	21,000 00
	1885	50 000 00
	1892	50,000 00
	1894	100,000 00
Water bonds due in	1905	500,000 00
		$736,000 00

It will be noticed that $15,000 00 of the above matures the present year, and must be included in the expenditures of 1881.

The City holds Trust Funds, as follows:

For Bangor Fuel Society	$1,000 00
Home for Aged Women	25,000 00
Children's Home	40,000 00
Bangor Mechanic Association	12,000 00
Wakefield fund for indigent women	10,000 00
	$88,000 00

showing aggregate direct liability of the City on Municipal Bonds and trust Funds to be $824,000 00.

RAILROAD LOANS.

To the E. & N. A. R'y Co., due January 1, 1894 ... $1,000,000 00

The interest on these bonds is invariably provided for by the company and no anxiety is entertained that the city will sustain any loss or inconvenience from this contingent liability.

To the Bangor & Piscataquis R. R. Co. due April 1, 1899, at 6 per cent	$600,000 00
at 7 per cent	325,000 00
	$925,000 00

As for several years past, the coupons for interest on these loans is paid directly from the City Treasury, which has caused a draft for the last year of $58 595.00. This has been reduced by the amount of $37,000 00 received from the net earnings of the road, making the net advance by city, $21,595 00. This receipt from the road is $11,000 in excess of that of the previous year, and an increase on the amount paid to the city for any year since the road defaulted on the interest.

SCHOOLS.

It gives me great pleasure to call your attention to the marked improvement made during the past year in our school grounds and buildings.

Such improvements are for the mutual advantage of teachers and scholars, as well as a pride to our citizens.

STREETS.

A large amount of permanent work has been done upon our streets the past year; the Dudley bridge completed; a substantial retaining wall rebuilt on Harlow street, also one on Columbia street, each of which, if properly built at first, would have saved this large expense; wooden culverts replaced with stone. Whenever such work is called for hereafter, I trust it will be done in a permanent manner.

SEWERS.

Our system of sewers, now nearly completed, has been very expensive, but in a sanitary point of view has been an absolute necessity, and a wise expenditure.

WATER.

In supplying our city with water has incurred a heavy debt, but the value of an abundant supply of pure water in a city like ours, for domestic, fire and street purposes, can scarcely be estimated.

The Water Works are believed to be in such condition as to need no great outlay this year. A large amount of labor and material have been used to make a suitable sluice for the passage of rafts and other lumber through the dam, and I hope the change made in the sluice, the past winter, will satisfy all interested, but if not, those who suffer can not be blamed, if they seek a legal remedy for their loss.

By the report of this department, it appears that 110 service pipes have been introduced during 1880, making the total number 1,458, and adding to the annual rates $1,642.00, an increase of about 12 per cent. during the year. The following is an abstract of the financial report:

CHARGES.

Amount of interest paid on water loan	$29,535 00
Ordinary expenses for maintenance, covering salaries, labor and material for new services and repairs on mains, &c.	4,707 60
Repairs on fishway, wrecking, and alterations on sluice, &c	1,957 88
Flowage damages	1,088 31
	$37,288 79

CREDITS.

Amount paid City Treasurer	$15,300 00
" charged other departments for use of water	7,833 00
	$23,133 00
Showing a draft on the Treasury of	$14,155 79

There remains uncollected, and in the hands of Water Clerk, March 9, 1880, say $1,330 00, nearly all of which will be available. The amount of water pumped during the year is 370,651,782 gallons, or more than one million gallons per day.

FIRE AND POLICE.

These departments are equalled by few neighboring cities and excelled by none. I see no way of diminishing the force of either or reducing the pay of their members.

Fire alarms with loss,	15
Fire alarms without loss,	11
Value of property burned,	$12 500
Amount of insurance,	10,700

POLICE.

The City Marshal's report shows twenty-five arrests on search and seizure warrants, one hundred and twenty-six tramps, two hundred and sixty-two for drunkenness and disturbance. It is believed that in this number arrested for drunkenness and disturbance, one hundred persons would cover the list, as many were arrested three or four times each.

I have a statement carefully prepared, and by authority, I think reliable, that in this city the number of places in which intoxicating drinks are supposed to be offered for sale, in violation of law, including all hotels and all druggists, to be less than eighty.

The City Agency is believed to be conducted according to law, in the qualities of its goods and in supplying demands there made.

CITY PHYSICIAN.

Reports of visits at alms house,	81
" " outside "	163
" at office,	135
" obstetrical cases,	6
" deaths,	16

I have omitted to quote from the reports of the Health officer, School agent, Overseers of the poor, or City Solicitor, but with confidence invite you to a careful examination of each, for their important information and suggestions will be found to aid us in the management of each of these departments.

RAILROADS.

The Bangor and Piscataquis Railroad will be a subject for your consideration.

Bangor should be congratulated that the management of this road is in the hands of so faithful and intelligent a board of directors. I trust some reasonable plan will be adopted to extend the road to Moose Head Lake, during this year, having full faith, that when completed, it will be able to pay its indebtedness.

I would urge every person who makes Bangor his home, to aid and encourage the building and operating of cotton and woolen factories within our city. Such industries would give us greater property, and an increase of population.

CONCLUSION.

It will require our constant care and best judgment to insure us a record as good as our predecessors have made in their administration of municipal duties.

The undisputed return of business prosperity to our country brings new hope and greater encouragement to all.

No idler should be found in our city looking for something to fall into waiting hands, but go out and demand of the uncultivated land about us, the returns such acres willingly yield to cheerful and faithful toil.

LYSANDER STRICKLAND, Mayor.

REGULAR BUSINESS.

The two Boards then adjourned to the rooms below, where the following business was transacted:

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

The rules and orders as revised by the last City Council were adopted. Regular meetings were fixed for the first Tuesday in each month.

A joint committee to report on business referred was ordered and Alderman Marston and Councilmen Rollins and Simpson appointed.

A committee to report on city officers necessary to be elected next Monday, was ordered and Alderman Adams and Councilmen Harlow and Holt appointed.

Alderman Rice and Councilmen Fletcher and Thayer were appointed a committee to report what salaries or other compensation shall be paid subordinate officers.

Order to publish five hundred copies of the Annual Reports, amended by adding "the contract for printing to be awarded to the lowest bidder," and passed as amended.

Adjourned to Thursday evening at half past seven o'clock.

IN COMMON COUNCIL.

The new Board met at their room in accordance with the requirements of the city charter and proceeded to ballot for a President, and Henry N. Fairbanks, Esq., having received the whole number of votes cast—19—was declared duly elected.

PRESIDENT FAIRBANKS' ADDRESS.

Mr. Fairbanks thanked the members in a brief speech as follows:

Gentlemen of the Common Council:

For this expression of your esteem in electing me to the honorable position of presiding officer, I thank you heartily, and fully appreciate the honor you have bestowed.

As your presiding officer should possess your confidence entirely and in order that he may obtain such confidence fully I am aware that he should not be allowed to exercise any other functions than those which properly belong to his office.

The Chair is not to submit propositions to this Council, not to participate in its deliberations, and not to vote except when the assembly is equally divided, "unless his vote, if given to the minority, will make the division equal," in which case the measure will be lost.

The advantages of these restrictions are supposed to be threefold:

First—The presiding officer is thus left to "devote himself exclusively to the duties of his office, and to the cultivation of the peculiar talents which they require, which would hardly be the case, if he were called upon to take the part, and sustain the reputation of a member, and were influenced by any other ambition than that of performing well the duties of his office."

Second—"He is thereby secured against the seductions of partiality, and is placed beyond the reach even of suspicion," by being excluded from engaging in debates and proceedings, in which it may become his duty officially to act as judge.

Third—He is relieved from the danger of "weakening his personal consideration by failing in the measures he undertakes, or by giving cause of offence to his associates," in case he should aid in a measure which might prevail, which in either case would expose the chair to disagreeable consequences should he participate as a member.

The right to debate a question is one of the first and highest privileges, and I believe it is one of the most important duties of a Chairman to see that each member is fairly treated in this respect, without regard to personal or party considerations. That each and every member shall have free opportunity to express his own views and feelings upon every question when in order, with full opportunity to record his vote, I shall endeavor to so administer the duties of the Chair that at the close of each meeting no one in this Council shall go away dissatisfied on account of any partiality of the Chair, by having put the question too quickly, or by any ruling which shall not give each member his fullest rights under the parliamentary rules which shall govern this body.

One of the first duties of a presiding officer is to keep and maintain order and decorum. I hope to meet your best wishes in this respect; yet, I do not forget that it is not possible for one to keep order and decorum for all of this Council. Each member should feel that high and personal regard for the dignity of his office, which will always keep in his mind the feelings of decorum and personal respect for each and every other member of this Council.

We are elected to honorable and responsible offices of trust, and let us resolve, as doubtless each member has already done, that we will act well our parts—meet each question with serious thought and decide honestly and "without fear or favor" upon the merits of the same by our votes.

There is nothing that will so universally give this Council, or any other deliberative body of men, an honorable name and a high standing with a constituency as the well-earned title of being thoroughly honest in all of its actions.

The Board then re elected Mr. Otto F. Youngs, Clerk, he receiving the whole vote cast—20.

The Clerk was duly qualified by A. L. Simpson, Esq., Justice of the Peace.

The rules and orders of the last Board, as revised and amended, were adopted for this year's Board.

Concurrent action was taken on all matters acted upon by the upper Board.

The Board then concurred in adjourning to next Thursday evening.

AMUSEMENTS.

Baird's New Orleans Minstrels.

Of the company which will appear in Norombega next Friday evening, the Sandusky Chief says:

* * * From foot lights to roof the hall was packed. Encore after encore was responded to and yet they cried for more. The "Four Invincibles" retired from sheer exhaustion. The quartette singing was splendid, Mr. Bartell's bass song, "Committed to the Deep," being remarkably fine. Billy McAllister's stump speech pleased us the most, but the pedestal clog dancing seemed to delight most of the audience greatly. We think Mr. Baird is perfectly safe in offering his $5,000 challenge for their equal. Baird's New Orleans are sure of a big house whenever they come. Seats may be secured at Bugbee's on and after to-morrow morning.

DENMAN THOMPSON.

Old "Uncle Josh's" smiling countenance will be seen at Norombega stage to-morrow evening, and that he will receive a hearty welcome is shown by the almost unparalleled advance sale of seats.

NOTES.

Sol Smith Russell will shortly appear in this city as "Tom Dilloway," in the new comedy illustration of New England life, and entitled "Edgewood Folks."

Collier's "Banker's Daughter's Combination," which will appear in this city on the 29th inst., bring with them some superb scenery designed from the original models by Richard Marston. The cast of characters embraces the names of many artists of high rank in the profession.

They are not a cure all, but only for those special diseases. They contain no opium, morphine or quinine, and are not a purgative, but regulate the bowels and cures constipation by curing or removing the causes of it. They have a charming effect upon the skin, and a lovely, quieting effect upon the nervous system, simply by feeding its ten thousand hungry, yes, in some cases starving absorbents. They make or create nerve matter and give power, force and buoyancy to the nerves, and in that way increase mental force, endurance and brilliancy of mind. Nobody that has a nervous system should neglect to take them two or three months in each year, simply as a nerve food, if for no other purpose. FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES.
NEURALGIA.

It has been ascertained that the most inveterate cases of neuralgia are cured by Fellows' Syrup of Hypophosphites. Not only is the principal disease eradicated, but the patient is made vigorous and strong; the stomach, the blood, the skin become healthy, and he obtains a new lease of enjoyable life.

The only satisfactory treatment of neuralgia is by strengthening the nervous system. A person with strong nerves never suffers from this disease.

The virtues of Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites are such that other remedies are seldom required.

The demand for Hypophosphite and other Phosphorus preparations at the present day, is largely owing to the good effects and success following the introduction of this article in the United States.

IMPORTANT.

Should the invalid have any difficulty in procuring the Compound Syrup in his vicinity, let him not be put off with any other remedy, because this article has not its equal in the diseases for which it is recommended.

NOTE.—Be suspicious of persons who recommend any other article as "just as good." The highest class medical men in every large city, where it is known, recommend it.

WOMAN'S TRIUMPH.

A Severe Surgical Operation. It is Endured without taking Ether. Subject, Mrs. Edward Myers, of Rondout, N. Y.

(From the Correspondence of the Kingston, N. Y., Freeman.)

The case of Mrs. Edward Myers, of Rondout, New York, furnishes an apt illustration of woman's power of endurance. This lady had been treated for months in the usual way for Erysipelas of the hand, without benefit. Not until her hand had become a mass of putrified flesh, did she turn to Dr. Kennedy, proprietor of the "Favorite Remedy," for help.

He at once informed her that it was impossible to save the hand—it must be amputated. She received this terrible intelligence quietly, declined to take ether, stipulating merely to hold her husband's hand during the operation, and underwent the painful process without moving a muscle or uttering a groan. Dr. Kennedy then gave "Favorite Remedy" freely to cleanse the blood and prevent the return of the disease, and Mrs. Myers now lives and rejoices in her great deliverance.

"Favorite Remedy" is fast becoming a trusted household friend in all cases of Female Weakness and diseases of the blood. One dollar a bottle. Your druggist has it.
